DISCUSSION: FIGHT FOR YOUR RIGHT

The battle of ideas seems a fight worth arming yourself for. No one needs a zombie apocalypse type situation where only the mindless wander the planet snacking on the brains of others. Choose your weapon and fight back. The Battle of Ideas was started 11 years ago by the Institute of Ideas to encourage free thinking and open-ended public discussion, and on Tuesday one of their satellite debates will be taking place at Karl der Grosse. The subject up for debate is: Who decides what makes great art? My answer would be, I do, but I'm sure the guests, including art journalists, educators and historians plus you, dear Ronster, can reach a little deeper than that. In English.

Tuesday 7.30 pm, Karl der Grosse
